Talent driven culture.

Ref. T201907_PRO _ Project Manager

Our client, prestigious company specializing in the aeronautical industry, located in Grândola, intends to recruit a project manager (M/F).

Location: Grândola, Porutgal

Responsibilities:

Responsible for the operational management of International Industrial Projects;

Support in the implementation of projects, ensuring the fulfillment of their objectives through the application of the management methodology adopted by the company;

Prepare and document the state of the projects and the action plan between the various stakeholders;

Define and apply practices that allow the monitoring of milestones and deliveries of the project effectively;

Always apply, as relevant, strategies or corrective measures so that the deadlines for delivery/milestones of the projects are fulfilled;

Monitoring of the size, costs, deadlines and quality of the results in all phases of the project in an effective way.

Requirements & Qualifications:

- Bachelor or master in Aeronautical engineering or mechanical engineering, or proven experience in identical position;
- 2 years experience in project management at the level of planning, resources and costs, applied in the aeronautical sector;
- Ability to coordinate teams;
- Experience in customer interaction;
- English level – advanced;
- French level – intermediate or advanced;
- Availability to travel within and outside the country.

Conditions offered:

- Salary package suitable for the experience presented;
- Contractual bond without term established directly with the client;
- Career development Opportunity.

If you meet the above requirements, please send your application via email: sferrao@qsr.consulting with the Ref_T201907_PRO _ Project Manager